Details

On Saturday, January 16th at approximately 4:30pm, a male 19 yrs. of age, (non MMC), was walking westbound in the East Village on E.6th street towards Taras Shevchenko Place, in front of La Salle Academy, when he was approached from behind by a male Asian on foot. Without warning the male Asian slashed him in the face with an unknown object causing a severe injury requiring stitches. The male Asian then fled in an unknown direction. It is not known at this time if this was a random attack.

This incident is currently under investigation by the NYPD 9th Precinct Detective Squad. Anyone with information regarding this incident is urged to contact the 9th Detective Squad at 212-477-7809 or MMC Campus Safety at 212-517-0685.

MMC Campus Safety recommends the following to help you stay safe

- Always be alert and aware of your surroundings
- Walk with someone whenever possible – travel in groups – especially after dark
- Be cautious if approached by a stranger(s)
- Confine your travel to well-lighted areas - avoid shortcuts such as alleys or walking behind buildings
- If someone bothers you - don't be embarrassed to attract attention to yourself – scream, yell or run into the nearest store for help
- If you are the victim of a crime on the street - Call 911 as soon as possible
- Remember to get a good description of the person
- Always report any such incidents to Campus Safety immediately
- Trust your intuition. If you feel something is wrong, remove yourself from the situation and get to a safe place as quickly as you can
